In his wildest dreams

Torn from his loved one over 20 years 'til his time was done
He said even free I'm stuck
I'll travel north just to try my luck
He met some men grown old scrambling over fields of gold
But he struck the vein more colour than they'd ever seen

In their wildest dreams
And in their wildest dreams
And in his wildest dreams
And in his wildest dreams
More colour than
More colour than they'd ever seen
In his wildest dreams
In his wildest dreams

Dear Sarah's name he sung his love for her still fierce and strong Oh Sarah did you wait or Sarah did you hesitate?
It's a lonely sea but it carries ones who are finally free
To what they'd left behind never knowing what they'll find

In their wildest dreams
In their wildest dreams
And in his wildest dreams
And in his wildest dreams
With his bride
With his bride by his side
And with his child
And with his grandchild
In his wildest dreams
In his wildest dreams
And in his wildest dreams
And in his wildest dreams
